

Pence addresses Hoosier Youth Challenge Academy at Franklin High School in Franklin, Indiana. More than 70 students graduated from this innovative program operated by the Indiana National Guard that offers high school diplomas to students who complete a rigorous program of academics and physical training.

